

James Walker Group

Ethics Statement

6 February 2020

James Walker Group Limited and its subsidiaries (the 'Group') is committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity in its business activities globally and to compliance with all local and international law. The Group believes that such an approach is essential to the long-term wellbeing of the Group itself, its shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and the communities in which it operates.

Ethical issues and the Group's performance in these matters are key interests to its shareholders. The Group communicates openly about these matters where this does not infringe upon commercial interests.

This Statement should be read in conjunction with our Anti-Corruption Policy.

Employees

Our employee policies are created and maintained locally within each unit to ensure that we operate with due regard to cultural diversity and fairness.

We treat employees with dignity and respect and ensure equal opportunity to all employees. Local employment policies address working conditions, recruitment, development and training, reward, health, safety and security, equal opportunities, retirement, redundancy, discrimination and harassment.

Integrity is an essential part of our working environment and it stimulates fairness, mutual trust and consideration.

Modern Slavery

The Group has zero-tolerance to modern slavery (including, inter alia, child labour and forced labour) and is committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships across the world. The Group expressly prohibits the presence or use of modern slavery anywhere in its business.

Customers & Suppliers

When employees are conducting business on behalf of any of the Group companies, you must ensure that you uphold the Group's reputation for observing the highest ethical standards.

Employees must avoid entering into any situation where their personal or financial interests may conflict with those of the Group.

If you find yourself in a situation where a conflict of interest may arise, you should disclose that interest to your line manager and ensure that you do not make the final decision.

Conflicts may arise because of family interests, knowledge of friends or financial investment. In all cases, you must act in the Group's interest and disregard your personal preferences.

Please refer to our Anti-Corruption Policy for guidance in relation to corporate gifts or entertainment.

When dealing with suppliers we must take reasonable steps to ensure that they also behave with the ethical standards we expect of ourselves.

Markets

We supply products that are used in a diverse range of machinery and equipment. We must ensure that:

We do not provide products that are used in the violation of human rights or the arms trade where this equipment may be transferred to oppressive regimes.

We do not support governments or businesses that fail to uphold basic human rights.

Products

We aim to limit the environmental impact during the manufacture and distribution process.

Our products must be deemed safe for the application they are supplied for.

Our products are designed not to damage the environment whilst in effective operation.

We will not be involved in testing products on animals.

Whistle Blowing

Please refer to our Whistle Blowing Policy for guidance in this area.

Shareholders

We aim to protect our shareholders' investment, provide a sustainable return on their investment and provide accurate and timely communications.

Wider Community

We will comply with the spirit as well as the letter of the law.

Ethics Statement Review Procedure

The Board of James Walker Group Limited will review this statement every two years.

This Ethics Statement was last reviewed and updated on 6th February 2020.

Peter Needham
Chairman
6 February 2020